LINCOLN FIRE AND RESCUE RECEIVES SALVATION ARMY RECOGNITION AFTER RAISING NEARLY 5 THOUSAND DOLLARS

Lincoln Fire and Rescue received recognition for its fund raising efforts for The Salvation Army during the 2003 holiday bell ringing season. The holiday bell ringing campaign is the largest fund raising effort of the year for The Salvation Army.

Lincoln Fire and Rescue volunteers helped raise $4,984.34 during last years Salvation Army bell ringing campaign. Captain Michael Clements received the award for LF&R at a recognition luncheon held at The Salvation Army on November 17, 2004.

Captain Clements has coordinated LF&R's volunteers for this project for the past 30 years. More than 100 Lincoln Fire and Rescue members and their families helped ring the familiar bells at seven locations across Lincoln.

Lincoln Fire and Rescue volunteers will be out in full force again this year on December 14th and 15th at several sites including: Scheels All Sports at SouthPointe Pavilions at 27th and Pine Lake Road. The North and South Walmart Supercenters. Younkers and Sears at The Westfield Shoppingtown Gateway Mall, and at The Shopko Department Stores located at 6845 S. 27th and 3400 N. 27th.
